

INCHEON ART PLATFORM 2020 Artists-in-Residence Program Open Call for Applications (International Artists)

Incheon Art Platform is pleased to announce Open Call for international artists in our Artists-in-Residence program for 2020. As a cultural complex for the arts, Incheon Art Platform aims to develop its residency program as a space for creative experiments; where artists from diverse practices are encouraged to collaborate and exchange with one another to form alternative discourse in contemporary art. In support of our artists, IAP offers opportunities to engage with the locals by promoting projects (exhibition, etc.) and working with the community.
